CHAPTER 2: PROVISION OF MUNICIPAL SERVICES TO CUSTOMERS OTHER THAN INDIGENT CUSTOMERS

Part 1: Application for Municipal Services

Application for Services

- 1.(1) A customer wanting to qualify, as an indigent customer must apply for services as set out in Chapter 4 below.
- (2) No person shall be entitled to municipal services unless application has been made to, and approved by, the council or its authorised agent on the prescribed form attached as Annexure A to these by-laws.
- (3) If, at the commencement of these by-laws or at any time, municipal services are provided and received and no written agreement exist in respect of such services, it shall be deemed that –
  - (1) an agreement in terms of sub-section (7) exists; and
  - (2) the level of services provided to that customer are the level of services elected;

Until such time as the customer enters into an agreement in terms of sub-section (2).
- (4) the council or its authorised agent must on application for the provision of municipal services inform the applicant of the then available levels of services and the then applicable tariffs and/or charges associated with each level of service.
- (5) The council or its authorised agent is only obliged to provide a specific level of services requested if the service is currently being provided and if the council or authorised agent has the resources and capacity to provide such level of service.

- (6) A customer may at any time apply to alter the level of services elected in terms of the agreement entered into, provided that such requested level of service is available and that any costs and expenditure associated with altering the level of services is paid by the customer.
- (7) An application for services submitted by a customer and approved by the council or its authorised agent shall constitute an agreement between the council or its authorised agent and the customer, and such agreement shall take effect on the date referred to or stipulated in such agreement.
- (8) In completing an application form for municipal services the council or its authorised agent will ensure that the document and the process of interaction with the owner, customer or any other person making such an application are understood by that owner.
- (9) In the case of illiterate or similarly disadvantaged persons, the council or its authorised agent must take reasonable steps to ensure that the person is aware of and understands the contents of the application form and shall assist him or her in completing such form.
- (10) Municipal services rendered to a customer are subject to the provisions of these by-laws, any applicable by-laws and the conditions contained in the agreement.
- (11) If the council or its authorised agent –
  - (1) refuses an application for the provision of municipal services or a specific service or level of service;
  - (2) is unable to render such municipal services or a specific service or level of service on the day requested for such provision to commence; or
  - (3) is unable to render the municipal services or level of services: the council or its authorized agent must, within a reasonable time, inform the customer of such refusal and/or inability, the reasons therefore and, if applicable, when the council or its authorized agent will be able to provide such municipal services or a specific service or level of service.

Special agreements for Municipal Services

- 2. The council or its authorised agent may enter into a special agreement for the provision of municipal services with an applicant-
  - (1) within the area of supply, if the services applied for necessitates the imposition of conditions not contained in the prescribed form or these by-laws;
  - (2) receiving subsidised services; and
  - (3) if the premises to receive such services are situated outside the area of supply, provided that the council, having jurisdiction over the premises has no objection to such special agreement. The obligation is on the customer to advise the council having jurisdiction of such special agreement.

Change in purpose for which municipal services are used

- 3. Where the purpose for on extent to which any municipal service used is changed, the onus and obligation is on the customer to advise the council or its authorised agent of such change and to enter into a new agreement with the council or its authorised agent.

Property developments

- 4.(1) A property developer must, on the provision of infrastructure for the provisioning of municipal services, inform the council or its authorised agent in writing of the details of all municipal services that may be provided through the infrastructure and the details of all measuring devices that will be installed.

- (2) A property developer that fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be liable for the payment of all estimated applicable charges that would have been payable by customers in respect of municipal services, provided if the details thereof was known by the council or its authorised agent.

Part 2: Applicable Charges

Applicable charges for municipal services

- 5.(1) All applicable charges payable in respect of municipal services, including but not limited to the payment of connection charges, fixed charges or any additional charges or interest will be set by the municipal council in accordance with –
- (a) its Rates and Tariff policy;
  - (b) any by-laws in respect thereof; and
  - (c) any regulations in terms of national or provincial legislation
- (2) Applicable charges may differ between different categories of customers, users of services, types and levels of services, quantities or services, infrastructure requirements and geographic areas.

Availability/Fixed charges for Municipal Services

6. The municipal council may, in addition to the tariffs or charges prescribed for municipal services actually provided, levy a monthly fixed charge, annual fixed charge or once-off fixed charge where municipal services are available, whether or not such services are consumed.

Subsidised Services

- 7.(1) The municipal council may, from time to time, and in accordance with national policy, but subject to principles of sustainability and affordability, by public notice, implement subsidies for a basic level of municipal service.
- (2) The municipal council may in implementing subsidies differentiate between types of household customers, types and levels of services, quantities of services, geographical areas and socio-economic areas.
- (3) Public notice in terms of sub-section (1) must contain at least the following details applicable to a specific subsidy –
- (a) the household customers that will benefit from the subsidy;
  - (b) the type, level and quantity of municipal service that will be subsidised;
  - (c) the area within which the subsidy will apply;
  - (d) the rate (indicating the level of subsidy);
  - (e) the method of implementing the subsidy; and
  - (f) any special terms and conditions that will apply to the subsidy.
- (4) If a household customer's consumption or use of a municipal service is –
- (a) less than the subsidised service, the unused portion may not be accrued by the customer and will not entitle the customer to cash or a rebate in respect of the unused portion; and
  - (b) in excess of the subsidised service, the customer will be obliged to pay for such excess consumption at the applicable rate.
- (5) A subsidy implemented in terms of sub-section (1) may at any time, after reasonable notice, be withdrawn or altered in the sole discretion of the municipal council.
- (6) Commercial customers may not qualify for subsidised services.

- (7) Subsidised services shall be funded from the portion of revenue raised nationally that is allocated to the council and if such funding is insufficient, the services may be funded from revenue raised by rates, fees and charges in respect of municipal services.

Authority to recover additional costs and fees

8. The council or its authorised agent has the authority to, notwithstanding the provisions of any other sections contained in these by-laws, recover any additional costs incurred in respect of implementing these by-laws against the account of the customer, including but not limited to –
- (a) all legal costs, including attorney and client costs incurred in the recovery of amounts in arrears shall be against the arrears account of the customer; and/or
  - (b) the average costs incurred relating to any action taken in demanding payment from the customer or reminding the customer by means of telephone, fax, e-mail, letter or otherwise.

Part 3 : Payment

Payment of deposit

- 9.(1) The municipal council may, from time to time, determine different deposits for different categories of customers, users of services, debtors, services and service standards, provided that the deposit will not be more than three times the monetary value of the most recent measured monthly consumption of the premises for which an application is made.
- (2) A customer must on application for the provision of municipal services and before the council or its authorised agent will provide such services, pay a deposit if the municipal council has determined a deposit.
- (3) The council or its authorised agent may annually review a deposit paid in terms of sub-section (2) and in accordance with such review –
- (a) require that an additional amount be deposited by the customer where the deposit is less than the most recent deposit determined by the municipal council; or
  - (b) refund to the customer such amount as may be held by the council or its authorised agent where the deposit is in excess of the most recent deposit determined by the municipal council.
- (4) If a customer is in arrear, the council or its authorised agent may require that the customer –
- (a) pay a deposit if that customer had not previously been required to pay a deposit, if the municipal council had determined a deposit; and
  - (b) pay an additional deposit where the deposit paid by the customer is less than the most recent deposit determined by the municipal council.
- (5) Subject to sub-section (6), the deposit shall not be regarded as being in payment or part payment of an account.
- (6) If the final account is in arrear, the deposit will be applied in payment or part payment of the arrears.
- (7) No interest shall be payable to the customer on any deposit held.
- (8) The deposit, if any, is refundable to the customer on settlement of all arrears and termination of the agreement. A deposit shall be forfeited to the council if it has not been claimed by the customer within 12 (twelve) months of termination of the agreement.

Methods for determining amounts due and payable

- 10.(1) The Council or its authorised agent must in respect of municipal services that can be metered, endeavour to within available financial and human resources, meter all customer connections and/or read all metered customer connections on a regular basis, subject to sub-section (2).
- (2) If a service is not measured a council or its authorised agent may, notwithstanding sub-section (1), determine the amount due and payable by a customer for municipal services supplied to him/her or it, by calculating the –
  - (a) the shared consumption; or if not possible
  - (b) the estimated consumption.
- (3) If a service is metered, but it cannot be read due to financial and human resource constraints or circumstances or beyond control of the council or its authorised agent, and the customer is charged for an average consumption, the account following the reading of the metered consumption must articulate the difference between the actual consumption and the average consumption, and the resulting credit or debit adjustment.
- (4) Where water supply is provided through a communal water service work (standpipe), the amount due and payable by customers gaining access to this water supply services through a communal water services work, must be based on the shared or estimated consumption of water supplied to that water services work.
- (5) Where in the opinion of the council or its authorised agent it is not reasonably possible or cost effective to meter all customer connections and/or read all metered customer connections within a determined area, the municipal council may, on the recommendation of the council or its authorised agent, determine a basic tariff (flat rate) to be paid by all the customers within the area irrespective of actual consumption.
- (6) The council or its authorised agent must inform customers of the method for determining amounts due and payable in respect of municipal services provided that will apply in respect of their consumption or supply zones.

Payment for Municipal Services provided

- 11.(1) A customer shall be responsible for payment of all municipal services consumed by him/her or it from the commencement date of the agreement until his/her or its account has been settled in full and the council or its authorised agent must recover all applicable charges due to the council.
- (2) If a customer uses municipal services for a use other than that for which it is provided by the council or its authorised agent in terms of an agreement and as a consequence is charged at a charge lower than the applicable charge the council or its authorised agent may make an adjustment of the amount charged and recover the balance from the customer.
- (3) If amendments to the applicable charge become operative on a date between measurements for the purpose of rendering an account in respect of the applicable charges –
  - (a) it shall be deemed that the same quantity of municipal services was provided in each period of twenty-four hours during the interval between the measurements; and
  - (b) any fixed charge may be calculated on a pro rata basis in accordance with the charge that applied immediately before such amendment and such amended applicable charge.

Full and final settlement of an amount

- 12.(1) Where an account is not settled in full, any lesser amount tendered to and accepted shall not be deemed to be in final settlement of such an account.
- (2) Sub-section (1) shall prevail notwithstanding the fact that such lesser payment was tendered and/or accepted in full and final settlement, unless the municipal manager or the manager of the council's authorised agent made such acceptance in writing.

Responsibility for amounts due and payable

- 13.(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of these by-laws, the owner of premises shall be liable for the payment of any amounts due and payable to the council or its authorised representative in respect of the preceding two years, where the owner is not the customer and the council or its authorised agent after taking reasonable measures to recover any amounts due and payable by the customer from the latter, could not recover such amounts such an account must then be closed and new one opened with the new customer.

Dishonoured payments

- 14.(1) Where any payment made to the council or its authorised agent by negotiable instrument is later dishonoured by the bank, the council or its authorised agent –
  - (a) may recover the average bank charges incurred relating to dishonoured negotiable instruments against the account of the customer; and
  - (b) shall regard such an event as default on payment.

Incentive Schemes

15. The municipal council may institute incentive schemes to encourage prompt payment and to reward customers that pay accounts on a regular and timeous basis.

Pay-points and Approved Agents

- 16.(1) A customer must pay his/her or its account at pay-points, specified by the council or its authorised agent from time to time, or at approved agents of the council or its authorised agent.
- (2) The council or its authorised agent must inform a customer of the location of specified pay-points and approved agents for payment of accounts.

Part 4 : Accounts

Accounts

- 17.(1) Accounts shall be rendered monthly to customers at the address last recorded with the council or its authorised agent. The customer may receive more than one account for different municipal services if they are accounted for separately.
- (2) Failure to receive or accept an account does not relieve a customer of the obligation to pay any amount due and payable.
- (3) The council or its authorised agent must, if administratively possible, issue a duplicate account to a customer on request.
- (4) Accounts must be paid not later than the last date for payment specified in such account.

- (ii) if no such agreement is entered into, the council or its authorised agent will limit the services after sending a final demand notice to the customer;
- (iii) legal action may be instituted against any customer for the recovery of any amount 40 (forty) days in arrears;
- (iv) the account may be handed over to a debt collector for collection; and
- (v) proof of registration, as an indigent customer, in terms of the council or its authorised agent's indigent policy, must be handed in at the offices of the council or its authorised agent before the final date for payment.

Consolidated Debt

18.(1) If one account is rendered for more than one municipal service provided the amount due and payable by a customer constitutes a consolidated debt, and any payment made by a customer of an amount less than the total amount due, will be allocated in reduction of the consolidated debt in the following order –

- (a) towards payment of the current account;
- (b) towards payment of arrears; and
- (c) towards payment of interest.

(2) If an account is rendered for only one municipal service provided any payment made by a customer of an amount less than the total amount due, will be allocated in the following order –

- (a) towards payment of the current account;
- (b) towards payment of arrears; and
- (c) towards payment of interest

(3) A customer may not elect how an account is to be settled if it is not settled in full or if there are arrears.

Part 5 : Queries, Complaints and Appeals

Queries or complaints in respect of accounts

- 19.(1) A customer may lodge a query or complaint in respect of the accuracy of an amount due and payable in respect of a specific municipal service as reflected on the account rendered.
- (2) A query or complaint must be lodged with the council or its authorised agent in writing before the due date for payment of the account.
- (3) In the case of illiterate or similarly disadvantaged customers, the council or its authorised agent must assist such a customer in lodging his or her query or complaint in writing and must take reasonable steps to ensure that the query or complaint is reflected correctly.
- (4) A query or complaint must be accompanied by the payment of at least the total amount, excluding the amount in respect of which a query or complaint is lodged, due and payable in respect of the account.
- (5) The council or its authorised agent will register the query or complaint and provide the customer with a reference number.
- (6) the council or its authorised agent –
  - (a) shall investigate or cause the query or complaint to be investigated within 7 (seven) days after the query or complaint was registered; and
  - (b) must inform the customer, in writing, of its finding within 9 (nine) days after the query or complaint was registered.

Appeals against the finding of a council or its authorised agent in respect of queries or complaints

- 20.(1) A customer may appeal in writing against a finding of the council or its authorised agent in terms of section 19 above.
- (2) An appeal and request in terms of sub-section (1) must be made in writing and lodged with the council within 14 (fourteen) days after the customer became aware of the finding referred to in section 19 and must –
  - (a) set out the reasons for the appeal; and
  - (b) be accompanied by any security determined for the testing of a measuring device, if applicable.
- (3) The council may on appeal by a customer, request him or her to pay the amount agreed on by the appeal committee.
- (4) The customer is liable for all other amounts, other than that appealed against, falling due and payable during the adjudication of the appeal.
- (5) An appeal must be adjudicated by the council within 21 (twenty one) days after it was lodged and the customer must be informed of the outcome in writing as soon as possible thereafter.
- (6) The decision of the appeal committee is final and the customer must pay any amounts due and payable in terms of the decision within 14 (fourteen) days of being informed of the outcome of the appeal.
- (7) The council may condone the late lodging of appeals or other procedural irregularities.

- (8) If it is alleged in an appeal that a measuring device is inaccurate, the device must be subjected to a standard industry test to establish its accuracy. The customer must be informed of the possible cost implications including the estimated amount of such test prior to such test being undertaken.
- (9) If the outcome of any test shows that a measuring device is –
  - (a) within a prescribed range of accuracy, the customer will be liable for the costs of such test and other amounts outstanding. Such costs will be debited against the customer's account;
  - (b) is outside a prescribed range of accuracy, the municipality or its authorised agent will be liable for the costs of such test and the customer must be informed of the amount of any credit to which he, she or it is entitled.
- (10) The security referred to in sub-section (2)(b), if applicable, and the amount paid in terms of sub-section (3) may be –
  - (a) retained by the council or its authorised agent if the measuring device is found not to be defective; or
  - (b) refunded to the applicant if the measuring device is found in terms of those sub-sections to be defective.
- (11) In addition to sub-sections (9) and (10) the council or its authorised agent, must if the measuring device is found defective –

- B. I further declare and accept that the following specific conditions shall apply to this application-
1. The council or its authorised agent may send authorised representatives to premises or households applying for registration as indigent customers to conduct an on-site audit of information provided prior to approval of an application or any time thereafter.
  2. An application shall be approved for a period of 12 (twelve) months only.
  3. The council or its authorised agent may on approval of an application or any time thereafter-
    - 3.1 install a pre-payment electricity meter for the indigent customer where electricity is provided by the council or its authorised agent; and
    - 3.2 limit the water supply services of an indigent customer to a basic supply of not less than 6 (six) kilolitres per month.
  4. An indigent customer must annually re-apply for registration as an indigent customer, failing which the assistance will cease automatically.
  5. The council or its authorised agent gives no guarantee of renewal.
  6. The municipal council may annually as part of its budgetary process determine the municipal services and levels thereof that will be subsidised in respect of indigent customers in accordance with national policy, but subject to principles of sustainability and affordability.
  7. Any other municipal services rendered by the council or its authorised agent or municipal services consumed in excess of the quantities specified in 6 above shall be charged for and the indigent customer shall be liable for the payment of such charges levied on the excess consumption. Normal credit control procedures shall apply in respect of such excess consumption.
  8. Arrears accumulated in respect of the municipal accounts of customers prior to registration as indigent customers will be suspended, without interest accumulating in respect of such arrears, for the period that a customer remains registered as an indigent customer.
  9. Suspended arrears shall become due and payable by the customer in monthly installments as determined by the council or its authorised agent, on deregistration.
  10. Arrears suspended for a period of two (2) years or longer shall not be recovered from a customer on deregistration.
  11. The council or its authorised agent may undertake regular random audits to-
    - 11.1 verify the information provided by indigent customers;
    - 11.2 record any changes in the circumstances of indigent customers; and
    - 11.3 make recommendations on the deregistration of the indigent customer.
  12. Any customer who provides or provided false information in the application form and/or any other documentation and information in connection with the application-
    - 12.1 shall automatically, without notice, be deregistered as an indigent customer from the date on which the council or its authorised agent became aware that such information is false; and
    - 12.2 shall be held liable for the payment of all services received;
    - 12.3 in addition to any other legal actions the council or its authorised agent may take against such a customer.
  13. An indigent customer must immediately request deregistration by the council or its authorised agent if his or her circumstances has changed to the extent that he or she no longer meets the qualifications set out in the by-laws.
  14. An indigent customer shall automatically be deregistered if an annual application is not made or if such application is not approved.
  15. An indigent customer shall automatically be deregistered if an audit or verification concludes that the financial circumstances of the indigent customer has changed to the extent that he or she no longer meet the qualifications set out in the by-laws.

16. An indigent customer may at any time request deregistration.

ANNEXURE C : FIDELITY BOND

In consideration of Dihlabeng Local Municipality providing services to

(Full name of client)

("the debtor") in respect of electricity, sewerage, refuse, water and relevant charges, conditions hereinafter set out, I/we the undersigned

---

(Name(s) of surety/ties)

1. Bind and oblige myself/ourselves, jointly as well as severally, as surety/ies and co-principal debtor/s in solidum for the repayment on demand of all or any sum or sums of money which the debtor may now or from time to time hereafter owe or be indebted to the Dihlabeng Local Municipality, its successors or assigns, whether such indebtedness be incurred by the debtor in the debtor's own name or in the name of any firm under which the debtor may be trading and whether solely or jointly with another or others or in partnership or otherwise, and whether such indebtedness arises from money already advanced or hereafter to be advanced, or from promissory notes, or bills of exchange already or hereafter to be made, accepted or endorsed or by virtue of any individual or joint suretyship, or guarantee, or bond, or pursuant to any cession or assignment from third parties or otherwise howsoever, including interest, discount, commission, legal costs incurred or to be incurred on an attorney-client scale, including collection commission, stamps and all other necessary, usual or incidental charges and expenses and I/we further agree and declare that I/we shall be liable to the Dihlabeng Local Municipality in the event of the insolvency/liquidation of either the debtor or myself/ourselves in respect of proving a claim in my/our or the debtor's insolvent estate/liquidation, including all costs and expenses of maintaining, conserving and/or realizing any security which the Dihlabeng Local Municipality may hold for such claim, and all amounts which may become payable by the Dihlabeng Local Municipality to the trustee/liquidator in consequence of its proving such claim, provided nevertheless that the total amount to be recovered from me/us hereunder shall not exceed, in the whole the sum of the debtor's liabilities to the Dihlabeng Local Municipality from time to time, together with such further sum or sums for interest, charges and costs including legal costs on an attorney-client scale as shall from time to time have accrued or become due and payable thereon.
2. I/we renounce the beneficium ordinis seu excussionis et divisionis and agree and declare that this suretyship is in addition and without prejudice to any other securities now held or hereafter to be held from or on behalf of the debtor and that it shall remain in force as a continuing covering security, notwithstanding any intermediate settlement of account and notwithstanding my/our death or legal disability. Furthermore this suretyship shall similarly remain in force as a continuing covering security as regards me/us or one or more of us, notwithstanding it may have ceased to bind one or more of the other undersigned, if any, on account of liquidation, insolvency or otherwise.
3. At the opinion of the Dihlabeng Local Municipality claim arising hereunder may be recovered in any Magistrate's Court having jurisdiction in respect of my/our person/s notwithstanding the amount of the claim, and I/we hereby consent to the jurisdiction of any such Magistrate's Court.
4. No variation of this suretyship shall be of any force or effect unless reduced to writing and signed by me/us and confirmed by the Dihlabeng Local Municipality in writing.
5. It is agreed that this suretyship constitutes the whole of the agreement between me/us and the Dihlabeng Local Municipality and that there are no conditions precedent suspending its operation and that no warranties, promises or representations whatsoever have been made or given by the Dihlabeng Local Municipality or by any other person to me/us to sign this suretyship and to bind myself/ourselves to the terms hereof, and any such warranties, promises, representations are hereby expressly excluded.

6. This document is and shall at all times remain the property of the Dihlabeng Local Municipality.
7. No alterations or variation of any present or future agreement between the debtor and the Dihlabeng Local Municipality shall in any way release me/us from my/our liability hereunder.
8. I/we acknowledge that I/we may only be released from my/our obligations hereunder by written notice from me/us to the Dihlabeng Local Municipality or from my/our executors, trustees or other legal representatives, as the case may be, requesting the Dihlabeng Local Municipality to release me/us from this suretyship, which shall be terminated only on written notice from the Dihlabeng Local Municipality to me/us acknowledging that such suretyship has been terminated, but such termination shall only come into effect when the sum or sums already due or accruing at the date of receipt of such notice, together with interest and costs thereon, have been paid.
9. I/we acknowledge that this document is an unconditional suretyship.
10. In the event of this suretyship having been prepared on the basis that it is to be signed by more than one surety, then any such surety or sureties signing this suretyship shall be firmly bound hereunder as being the sole surety/sureties.
11. Furthermore for the purpose of the suretyship and of any proceedings which may be instituted by virtue hereof, I/we have chosen domicilium citandi et executandi at: -
